SUDDEN DEATH

Recently Been Visiting in Memphis.

The Evansville Journal, of Thursday, says that Mrs. Katharine Adams, widow of the late Captain Thomas Adams, of New Albany was a passenger the night before by the to the Sherwood House by Mrs. Robert W. McCoy and another lady friend. Being much exhausted by the effort of walking up the wharf she took a seat in the office, and was fanned by one of the ladies who accompanied several physicians, but could not reach any one and finally rushed out to hunt up a doc-tor. He first found Dr. O'Sullivan and soon declining to lie down upon the bed. Dr. O'Sullivan was the first to arrive, and he had scarcely reached the room before Mrs. Adams breathed her last. She was in the seventieth year of her age, and has recently been living at Loogootee, but has been visiting in Mem-phis during the winter. She was formerly of New Albany, and was familiarly known as "Aunt Kitty Adams," and was well-known by the Messrs. Lindley, of this city. The lady accompanying her from Cairo is a niece of Dr. Ralston, and has been closely associated with Mrs. Adams. The arrival of the doctors was too late to afford any relief. Mrs. Adams was the aunt of Pilot William Underwood, and was a lady highly esteemed by all her acquaintances. Every effort was made to resuscitate Mrs. Adams, but death ensued in four minutes after Dr. O'Sullivan
